Louisville & Nashville Railroad Historical Society, Southern Railway Historical Association, and Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum will hold a first-ever joint convention in Chattanooga -- September 29th through October 1st.

Clinics on railroad history, operations, and modeling will be held on TVRM's campus. A special feature will be an RPM (Railroad Prototype Modeling) series of clinics.

TVRM's dinner train for our Saturday banquet venue will be a convention highlight; plus, other train rides will be available through TVRM.

L&NHS's new archives facility will be dedicated during the convention, and you will also be able to visit SRHA's outstanding archives.

There will be a variety of places to watch and photograph trains, including Grand Junction – TVRM's main depot.
